

Maria Esther

On-Air Talent / Host El Show de Maria Esther

Bio

Maria Esther was born in Spain living in the United States for the past 20 years. In her short career, Maria Esther has become a star in Houston's morning radio landscape. Her great sense of humor and passion, have fueled her successful radio career.

While having a career in radio was always her dream, Maria Esther started out as a paramedic in the City of Houston. Once given the opportunity, she quickly rose in popularity as one of Houston's top talents.

Maria Esther has a natural flair for comedy that appeals to both men and women alike. Her benchmark, El Truco de Belleza (Beauty Trick,) is filmed for television in Houston and is on high demand by listeners both calling the station and visiting the format online.

She enjoys spending time with family which includes her husband and newborn baby girl. She also cherishes interacting with fans in social media. Maria Esther gives great importance to her spiritual health, striving to encourage listeners and being of help to others. These endearing qualities come through as she engages and entertains her loyal listeners.

